TOUR TO CUBA

In March of 2016, the Vassar College Choir, Women’s Chorus, and Madrigal Singers will travel to Cuba for a Choir tour. It has been four years since the last tour, and Choir Council, a student organization, is raising money for the trip. Through individual student payments, private donations, and financial aid from the Music Department and President’s Office, 93% of the total cost of the trip has already been raised!

If you would like to support these wonderful ensembles for their trip to Cuba, please consider attending:

“Kids Night Out.” The Vassar College Women’s Chorus is hosting “Kids Night” in the Villard Room, Main Building, on Friday, November 6, 7:00pm-10:30pm. Drop off your kids for games, playtime, stories, movies, and lots of fun.

“Caroling, Caroling.” December 1-18. Hire a small ensemble to sing at your office party or special event.

“Modfest Cabaret.” Friday, February 6, 2016, 6:00pm-9:00pm. Villard Room and Rose Parlor, Main Building. Members of the choirs will perform selections from musical theater and the Great American Songbook. Join us for this ticketed event with a silent auction.

For more information on these events, or how you can help the choir with our fundraising efforts, please contact Emily Omrod ’16, Choir Council President, at emomrod@vassar.edu.
