James Osborn founded the Vassar College and Community Wind Ensemble in 2001. The ensemble is comprised of Vassar students, staff, and community members. Mr. Osborn also directs the Vassar Jazz Ensemble, coaches the four jazz combos, and has taught trumpet at Vassar since 1982. He also has a very active performing schedule, freelancing throughout the northeast. He has played lead trumpet with Bobby Vinton, Tony Bennett, The Temptations, The Four Tops and many others, and also performs regularly with several orchestras, brass ensembles, and church ensembles.
